- ALL ANIMALS ARE THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE OWNER

Biosecurity and Wairarapa A&P Show Practice Policy

Wairarapa A&P Society take Biosecurity very seriously so we require our competitors to please adhere to the following rules

- One stud only at a time per washbay as per the time slot provided (Dairy and beef have separate washbays).
- No new Cattle exhibitor can be stalled in a pen previously used by another stud exhibitor, unless all bedding has been removed and replaced with fresh bedding with all rails and flooring disinfected (Fully sprayed wet) with Virkon disinfectant.
- Unless an animal is either at the wash bay, in the ring or moving between, all animals must be kept within their stalling area
- Please do not share buckets, troughs, brushes, grooming equipment, Nose clips etc with other exhibitors
- Please ensure you have the sufficient number of handlers for your animals, for bio-security reasons swapping handlers between studs is not permitted at this event unless organised with the show secretary prior to entries closing
- There will be Hand Sanitizer provided in the pavilion
- We will be running a public display on Saturday and Showing on Sunday for the Beef / Lifestyle classes. FB youth classes will be showing on Saturday. If you are requiring extra people to attend to set up or assist you, please ensure they are fully compliant with the above Bio-Security rules
- In the interest of Bio-security a “keep left” and “giveaway” to the right approach will be taken for animals entering and exiting the stalls and using raceways. A 2-meter gap between exhibitor stalls must be adhered to at all times to the satisfaction of the Stewards.
- Any exhibitor that has cattle that require milking will need to provide their own milking system.
- All exhibitors are responsible for keeping their stalls clean and tidy at all times, including poo removal.
- All electrical equipment to have a current electrical compliance safety tag fitted.
- There is a NO SMOKING / NO VAPING policy in the Cattle Pavilion – it the responsibility of all to remind the general public of this.
